RAIDER BASEBALL

The Raiders played four games in five days last week and came out with three wins and one loss in Seminole District competition. Tom Hix got Appomattox off to a good start with a one hit shutout over William Campbell. Tom struck out eight and walked only one and his teammates scored twice in the first inning to give him all the runs he needed.

The Raiders scored eight runs in the first inning and went on to defeat Gretna 14 to 5 behind Mitch Eggleston who gave up only two hits in five innings. Darrell Schrock pitched the last two innings for Appomattox. Donald Harvey, Joe Fraley, Tom Hix and Andy Wingfield supplied the power as each had two hits and they had a total of thirteen runs batted in.

The only loss of the week came at the hands of Rustburg who scored six runs in the second inning and defeated the Raiders 7 to 2. Appomattox outhit the Red Devils eight.to seven but Rustburg came up with four in one inning to spark the rally. Joe Fraley started for the Raiders and was charged with six runs. Mike Wooten relieved in the second inning and allowed one run on four hits in five innings.

Appomattox and Nelson locked up in a real old fashioned pitcher's duel Friday as Mitch Eggleston bested Mr. Johnson 1 to 0. Mike Wooten got the only RBI of the game with a two out single up the middle in the last of the sixth scoring Tom Hix from third. Each pitcher struck out five while Eggleston gave up three hits and Johnson gave up five.

Jr. Woman's Club Hears Program On Special Olympics

Mrs. Bettye Williams, Special Education Teacher in the Appomattox County public school system, was Special guest speaker of the Jr. Woman's Club of Appomattox meeting held April 26th at the Farmer's National Branch Bank with Mrs. John R. Booker, President, presiding. Mrs. James A. Nolen gave devotions

Mrs. Floyd Williams, Public Affairs Chairman, introduced the guest speaker for the evening. Bettye is a native of surrounding Charlotte County. She is married to Lloyd E. Williams and resides in Evergreen. She graduated from Norfolk State College with a BS in Special Education in 1974. She will begin work on her masters with emphasis in learning disabilities during the summer session at Lynchburg College. This is her second year teaching in the county's school system. She works with the educable mentally retarded students-ingrades 9-12. Working with the same students allows her to see their progress. This alone has made the rewards of teaching ever-increasing. In addition to her talk, a film presentation was shown of past Special Olympics.

TMR Class Enjoys Field Trip

The TMR Class at Appomattox County High School enjoyed a field trip in Appomattox on Friday, April 29th. Their first stop was at WTTX Radio Station where Jody Rainwater gave a tour of the station and then taped each student's voice. . Each student received two records and a bumper-sticker.

The second stop was at the TIMES-VIRGINIAN. Mrs. Frances Paulette explained all the stages of printing a newspaper and took the above picture of the students.

The students then went to the Appomattox Bowling Alley and thoroughly enjoyed this as it was the first time many of them have ever bowled.

The fourth stop was at the Top Treat where they enjoyed a delicious lunch, compliments of the house. Mr. John T. Paulette also gave the students free passes for the Putt Putt Golf course.

This field trip provided experience for the students in language development, math skills, social behavior and recreational activities.
